Ava Rose Buoniconti

OCT 30, 2016 - OCT 30, 2016

Around 5:30 pm on Saturday the 29th I told Ryan that something felt off with the baby and that I wanted to go to the hospital and make sure that everything was ok. After seeing 2 different nurses and 2 different doctors, all unable to find my sweet girls heartbeat. On October 30th at 1:01 pm I gave birth to my sleeping angel. 8 pounds 6 ounces and 22 inches of absolute perfection. I'll never understand why it happened or how it happened. All I know is my sweet angel is now in heaven watching over us.

“Loving you was the easiest thing I’ve ever done. Losing you was the hardest. But to have carried you at all has been the single greatest privilege I have ever had in life”. Ava Rose Buoniconti, it broke our hearts to lose you, but you didn’t go alone. A part of us went with you the day God took you home. Mommy and Daddy love you with all of our hearts baby!

Ava will be in the Hearts of Her Mommy (Michaela), Daddy (Ryan) and Brother (Braxton) as well as her Extremely large extended family Forever.

RIP Our Beautiful Angel

During this time of great sorrows, caring thoughts are with you and your family. So sorry for your loss. Hearts ache when they are overwhelmed with sadness and grief. May your loving memories of Ava bring a smile to your face and a calm to your heart, as you draw comfort from "the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our trials," "while you throw all your anxieties on Him because he cares for You" (2 Corinthians. 1:3-4 – 1 Peter 5:7) May the marvelous prospect that soon death will be no more, give you hope and bring you peace, for we are guaranteed, He (God) will swallow up death forever... (Isaiah 25:8). With deepest sympathy.
