The nuances of Chris' life are omnipresent. I find multiple latitudes in Chris' daily expressions, and am able to relate them within the vicissitudes of anything which transpires. Chris has not left you- or me. There is no need to look in far away places, for familiar faces. He is within all of us. The decisions we make, the places we visit and the people we continue to meet-throughout our lives-and journeys. It is not physical. Chris' expressions, advice and didactic interludes are meant to inspire all of us. He has inspired me-and will continue to inspire-no matter how long ago.

As the years went by, we drifted apart.When I heard that he was gone, I felt a shadow cross my heart- Rush, Counterparts (1993).Chris was an incredible person. He never judged, and was a pragmatist. To this day, I may wince when attempting something unfamiliar. I still hear Chris' reverberating reassurance....."try it." I will miss you. The world was more familiar with your presence.

My dearest Marial have known you from the moment you arrived in the USA. We were neighbors , friends , family for years. I shall always treasure all the precious memories the bad, and great times we shared. I also will never forget the sparkle in your eyes, the glowing smile on your face . When the day you met Chris , you were beyond excited . As I sat with your family sitting around laughing and telling stories . You came through your door and not a word was needed to be said by you .It was written all over your face we all knew at that moment you had just fallen in love . You had just given your heart to Chris . It took you a moment standing at the door just day dreaming before you actually said the words we all already knee . I have just met the most amazing man he was so nice . I know he is the one for me we were meant for each other. Mariana I say with a very heart that I'm so sorry for your loss. I know that right now there is nothing anyone can say or do to take away this aching, broken heart you are feeling. So what I can say to you is Mariana when you feel as though he might not be there . Remember he will always be there watching over you and your beautiful son . He will be your special love and angel. R.I.P. Red

You were the kind of man every man should be a wonderful husband and daddy. You left us a piece of you behind in Carsten and we will always cherish him. I miss you so much words cant describe and just wish I had gotten the chance to tell you I love you ,Cause I would have begged you not to go... I will think about you everyday and never forget you . Chris from the moment we met we were inseparable , I knew we were true soulmates . Most people go through life wishing to meet that true love and we found it in each other. The ten years I've spent with you have been truly the best ten years of my life. You loved me full heartedly and you told me everyday . Everyday you made me and Carsten feel special and you always made us laugh no matter the situation . I'm going to miss you so much it's so hard not having you here , not being able to hold your hand . I'm going to miss your jokes your laughter , your smile , your hugs and kisses ,your smell the sparkle in your eyes. I'm actually going to miss you talking about cars all of the time , going for rides when it snows just me and you the simple things we did but we had fun because we were together . I love all of the things we did as a family going camping all summer , going for walks , pumpkin picking trick or treating . We were a team and I will never forget that and I will make sure Carsten never forgets. He misses you so much and what he keeps saying is that you are such a good dad because of you Carsten has had an amazing childhood and I will continue to do all the things that we did with him . I will do my best to raise him to have the same values and morals that you have . He is just like you when I look at him I see you and im so grateful that I have a piece of you . I love you baby always and forever . . .
