I just wish, Mom, I could give you one more long, soft kiss on your cheek, Mom. I wish I could touch you, Mom, and look at your face again. I wish I could look in your eyes, Mom, and tell you again how proud I am to be your daughter. I know, Mom, I will see you again in Heaven. That is a fact and I know it for sure, Mom. Please, Mom, keep asking God to take care of the kids and grandkids. I love them all so much, Mom. It is just the same way, Mom, you have always loved us kids—Billy, Tommy and me. I guess that is what mothers do; they love their children and grandchildren more than anything in the world. So, Mom, I know you know that Dad and Tommy and me think of you everyday—everyday for sure. Dad just misses you so, so much, Mom. Keep making that special place ready for Dad in Heaven, Mom. I can't wait to see you again, Mom. Until I do, please know, Mom, I love you so very much. Your daughter forever, Peggy

Think about you all the time Grandma. I look at your photo often and can hear your voice, how you would call me "doll". You are our angel now. Love you very much Gma.

it is July 13, 2013, Mom, and we are thinking of you so much today. Tomorrow on Chuck's birthday it will be 1 year ago that you had the beginning of your new life in Heaven with God. We love and miss you, Mom, so, so much. Dad cries everytime we talk about you just as he did tonight. All the grandkids said something tonight about what they remembered about you, Mom. It was really nice. Please, Mom, be our Angel in Heaven and always ask God to protect the kids and grandkids. Dad is 92 years old as you know and he loves you and misses you so much, Mom. I know you are getting a good place all set up in Heaven for him. He is healthy and well and still drives and he acts like about 80 years old at the most. But I know someday he will be with you again, Mom. Thank you, Mom, for being my Mom. I love you now and forever, Peggy

Mary was a wonderful neighbor and friend. She taught me to say Thank You to more people, more often. Even when she was in great pain, she would thank us for small gifts of food and friendship. We shall miss her very much, but I know she went straight to God's heaven. God bless Bill for taking such good care of her. Blessings to all their family. Diane and Leo Marchand
