Dear Bob, In the short few years we've known each other, you've been a true friend — a friend that I needed, a friend that I would like to become, a friend who will be missed. Thank you for being there and for drawing me out of myself. I'll always remember your humor and stories, as will many others. Know that you are loved and have left behind a fine legacy. Peace my Friend.

Dear Bob, You helped me in my recovery at a time of need, you taught me that I don't need to take myself so seriously. The small group we were involved in benefited from your presence and light and getting to know you outside the rooms was the high point of our Thursday evenings. With much love to you and I know you're in the hand of God, you will always be in my heart and in my mind.

Dad, I find it too hard to express myself. There has been too many losses this year, all too rough & harsh. May you rest now and know that you will live on in my heart. Love, Marcia
