My most vivid memory of Jessie, and the one that always comes to mind when I think of her, is WAY back in the Corvair club days we had pool parties at Larry Scrivener's huge pool. I'd bought a "Sun Island", an inflatable round raft at least 6' across, and brought it. I, and a whole bunch of others, kept playing on it climbing on, laughing, and sliding off as someone moved just a bit too much to one side. And there was Jessie, in amongst us all with her beautiful smile. It was fantastic to see a picture of just this memory at her reception. Wow, makes me smile in this time of sadness just to think of that. Thank you Jessie!

May she rest in peace and may the memories of times spent with her bring comfort to those she left behind.
