Many fond memories from our days at Encad. Significantly was the time her mgr. Wes, and I, met before a SD Charger game. Marta passed out balloons to each of us to release at kickoff in honor of her mother's passing. Attached photo includes Marta in the middle of the Encad group.

I am shocked and very sad to hear this news. She was very sweet and had a great sense of humor. I have nothing but fond memories of her. She was able to combine relentless accomplishment with edgy humor that always had me and others laughing. The last time I saw her was at her wedding which was a great party. My thoughts and prayers are with her close family and friends.
