To the family of Marilyn May very sorry to hear of your loss. I met her some years ago when she was a graduate student at SDSU in the Interior Design Program. At that time I was the Accts. Manager for the School of Art. Some years later a friend referred me to her for some window coverings in my condo. She came over and was of great help to me and enjoyed much our conversation. I last saw her at the Faculty Art Exhibition opening reception Sept. 2009. At that time she was in declining health. I will always have good memories of a very nice kind woman with a sense of humor. All best, David Camberg

To Marilyn, as you wing your way to Heaven: Thank you for being a really good friend, my realtor for both buying and selling my townhouse, and my surrogate sister. You made me feel more at home in San Diego, a place I was not meant to stay. Your voice is forever in my mind. I know you will be singing with the other Angels.
