To the Family of Officer Robert (Bob) Brown: I send you my deepest regrets and most sincere condolences. Mr. Brown was like another dad to me. He and my dad were very close. I will truly miss his warm heart, big laugh, and most of all, his grip of steel when he shook my hand. May God Bless you all – from Chuck's son.

Cecil and Orville...I'm sorry to hear your father passed. I always respected Coach Brown, he was a tough baseball competitor, who always played by the rules, on the field and off. May God Bless Him! Arnold Powers (Junior)
