Melissa Catan-Paz posted:

I have some many wonderful memories of the SPUNKY little daredevil who had personality for days. Like the time I gave him a haircut while his mom was at the store, and all the memories of all the backyard BBQs , birthday parties and holidays we spent together. And Every Christmas morning watching him and all the kids showing each other what they got from santa , All the trips to the beach soaking up sun that would ultimately fry him each time. I watched him grow up for 17 years and To think that I wont look out my window and see him anymore or hear his voice ever again breaks my heart. Rest In Peace.
