Lawrence David Berg

MAR 1, 1932 - JUN 5, 2023

Lawrence D Berg was born on March 1, 1932, in San Diego California, he died June 5th, 2023. He was the second of two children. His parents were Lawrence Alfred Berg and Gladys Emma Ketchum.

Married Margaret Jean Flieger in April 1959. They were married 35 years until her death on June 22, 1994.

Lawrence is survived by: His sister Joan Miller, husband Nigel Miller. His Sons: David James Berg, wife Angela Berg, Robert Kenneth Berg, wife Margaret S. Berg, Gary William Berg, wife Norma Berg. Granddaughters: Jasmine Yambao, Shannon Berg and Victoria Ponce, husband Benjamin Ponce.

Larry was born and raised in Logan Heights, a suburb of San Diego California. He was a very adventurous young boy, loved to explore the greater San Diego County always finding things to do with friends and family.

He went to high school at San Diego High where he played football all throughout high school. He worked a short amount of time at the San Diego Zoo and Convair before going into the Coast Guard. Later when he married Margaret they started their family in La Mesa, California, where he lived the rest of his life.

He learned to be a journeyman plumber, working on all sorts of residential and commercial buildings. He could build and repair anything mechanical. He loved doing all sorts of home projects with his three sons around the house.

He retired in 1993 after working for 35 years. Then he cared for his wife Margaret during her difficult illness.

He enjoyed coins, golfing, fishing, making wine, caring for a vegetable garden, jewelry making and looking for deals at the swap meet among other endeavors. Visits to Canada were an important part of his family life. He liked his coffee black and his toast cold and hard. He loved to eat hot peppers. Chocolate was his favorite. Most of all, he provided for and cared deeply for the wellbeing of his wife Margaret, his sons, and their families.

Larry had many sayings that he lived by: "I'm the Best dad you'll ever have." "I'm the last of the
