Carmen Balansay Villegas

AUG 26, 1941 - AUG 13, 2023

Our dear mother, grandmother, tia, nana, and atchi, Carmen Balansay Villegas sadly passed away on Sunday, August 13, 2023. She lived a life that was a testament to humility, unwavering love, unshakable faith, and an indomitable spirit. Her love was a steady anchor in our lives, reminding us that we were cherished and valued beyond measure. Her faith was unwavering, guiding her through life's challenges and uncertainties. Headstrong and determined, Carmen faced life's trials with a resilience that was truly remarkable. She never shied away from difficult decisions or daunting paths, showing us that strength comes not from avoiding adversity, but from facing it head-on. Her determination was a source of inspiration, reminding us to be strong and steadfast even in the most difficult times. While we mourn the loss of her physical presence, we take comfort in knowing that her spirit lives on in the lessons she imparted, the values she instilled, and the memories we shared. May Carmen's soul find eternal peace in the embrace of the divine, and may her legacy continue to inspire us all. Rest in peace, dear mom, knowing that your love and light will forever guide us.
