Jack was a very fun-loving, outgoing, and social person who embodied the spirit of happy hour! He was loyal, generous, and special to everyone who met him. He could always be counted on to help lend a hand, a smile, or a hug. He will best be remembered for all things sweet... See's Candy, doughnuts, and pie all as sweet as he was!!!. He will be deeply missed but never forgotten and the wonderful memories we have of him along with the lasting impressions he left on our hearts, will remain with us forever.
