In Loving Memory of Gloria Richardson

Gloria Richardson, a cherished resident of North Park for nearly 50 years, passed away surrounded by her loving family. She is survived by her two sons, Greg and Jeff, and her granddaughter, Jennell.

Gloria moved to San Diego in 1976 from Buffalo, NY, seeking a better life for her family. She dedicated her career to caring for others as an LVN nurse and found joy in baking pies and cakes for her loved ones. Known for her kindness and gentle spirit, Gloria always put her family first, creating a legacy of love and warmth.

Her memory will be forever cherished by those who knew and loved her.

Love you Mom Rest In Peace.
