“ Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your dear, loved one. Death is hard to deal with. Even Jesus gave way to tears when Lazarus died (John 11:35). But our Heavenly Father views death as an enemy and promises to put an end to it (1 Cor 15:26). We can look forward to being reunited with our loved ones again. “ The Bible at Psalms 90:10 refers to those who live well into their 70â??s or 80â??s as being especially strong. Yes, your beloved June was so blessed. May her strength trickle down to her family and friends so you may be comforted in the days to follow. Lean on God for â??everlasting comfort and good hopeâ??, 2 Thessalonians 2:16, 17 for he is close to those â??brokenheartedâ?? Psalms 34: 18. My deepest sympathy.

“ Please accept my condolences for the passing of your dear loved one. When someone we love dies, the heartache and grief can be great. I hope that you can be comforted knowing that God cares for you and sees your pain. (1 Peter 5:7) "He is close to the brokenhearted and He saves those who are crushed in spirit. (Psalm 34:18) May you find comfort and relief during this grievous time, as you cherish the precious memories of June.
